

WORKING TOGETHER.
INSURING TOMORROW.

We are committed to you – and your customers. We know that you work hard to build your business, and that you can and should choose your carriers carefully. With so many choices available, why choose to work with us?

OUR MISSION IS SIMPLE

We take care of our customers better than anyone else.

With Main Street America Insurance, you have a knowledgeable team with expertise in your market, including customer service support to streamline underwriting and quoting, sales representatives who have underwriting authority, and dedicated new business and renewal underwriters who help you quote new business faster. You can count on us to have the competitive products and simplified setup that make doing business easy, so you can skip the long training session and service calls and spend more time supporting your customers and signing new ones.

OUR HISTORY IS RICH

From our founding in 1923 to today, we are here to help independent agents deliver affordable insurance to the people and businesses you'll find on "Main Streets" across America. How? By understanding that behind every policy is a person that needs protection. And by listening to independent agents who work together to meet market needs, and by developing the products and tools that help you achieve profitable growth.

OUR FUTURE IS YOU

Working together, the future looks brighter than ever.

We know the better we serve you, the better you can serve your customers. It's why everything we do has been independent agent-tested and approved. And it's why we have created the Agents First, Agents Only pledge and seal. When you see it, you know you can count on Main Street America to support you, not compete with you.

FINANCIAL STRENGTH

$1.1 Billion Direct
Written Premium

$628.7 million surplus

$2.61 billion total assets

"A" ("Excellent") Financial Strength Rating

"a+" Issuer Credit Rating

At Main Street America Insurance, we believe independent agents deliver the choice, guidance, and support consumers need when searching for personal and commercial insurance. Unlike many national carriers that bypass independent agents in order to sell directly to consumers, we are committed to supporting independent agents – not competing with them.

OUR HISTORY

OUR VISION IS CLEAR

To be the most trusted and valued customer-driven insurance company.

It's an exciting time to join Main Street America. We're expanding our footprint to broaden our national presence, developing products that offer sophisticated pricing segmentation, leveraging the full resources of our enterprise partners, and deploying cutting-edge technology to provide our agents with streamlined, easy-to-use platforms. And while a lot of things are changing, our vision remains laser-focused and clear: to earn your trust, to add value to your business, and to help drive your success.
